

WE NOMINATE

George Craig Severance Hackl, a product of the Princeton Country Day School, who this Saturday—before a University Alumni Day turn-out of some 2,500 persons—will lead the Princeton hockey team against a highly-favored Harvard array ranking among the outstanding college hockey squads developed along the Atlantic Seaboard in the past ten years. While only a handful of this community's most rabid hockey enthusiasts will give the Hackl-captained Princetonians more than an outside chance of upsetting Harvard and thereby remaining in the thick of the battle for the Ivy League title, it is to Hackl's everlasting credit that the Orange and Black combination, one of the most appealing Princeton teams of the past decade, still merits consideration as a championship contender.

Some two months ago, at the start of the winter athletic season, the so-called experts "wrote off" the Princeton skaters, predicting that a one-out-of-three percentage for the winter would be a commendable showing, that a team with only two seniors (Hackl and a former Princetonian, William Van Alstyne) lacked the necessary know-how and depth. Since then Princeton has scored eight wins in 13 starts, has turned back the national intercollegiate champions, has gained a home-and-home "split" with potent Brown and last Saturday, in retaining a grip on the top rung of the five-team Ivy League ladder, recorded Princeton's first shutout conquest of Yale in 31 years.

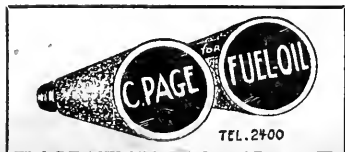

The 22-year old Hackl, "majoring" in English and the son of a member of the Princeton Class of 1926, reflects those qualities of development traditionally associated with intercollegiate athletics at their best. Two years back, when Princeton was carrying off Ivy League honors for the first time in 12 long years, Hackl appeared in exactly two of the 19 varsity games. Last winter he attained regular's status with the "third line" and over the season accounted for three less scoring-points than he has produced to date in 1954-55. Most important of all, Hackl in his "year of decision" has matured so rapidly that his team's veteran trainer states that "this guy has proved himself the greatest, hardest-working captain I have ever worked with."

Hackl, recipient in 1948 of Princeton Country Day's annual award to its outstanding athlete and winner of hockey and soccer recognition at Phillips Exeter Academy, is held primarily responsible by his coach, Richard F. Vaughan, for creating the kind of team camaraderie which minimizes the loss of two key men and emphasizes wide-open offensive hockey. It is in keeping with Hackl's team that one of its stand-bys insists, without paying tribute either to playwright Tennessee Williams or to the 1954 Navy football team ("a team called desire"), that the seventh member of the six-man Princeton team is an individual who is known as "Joe Desire."

For exercising the type of firm, effective leadership which bodes well for the upcoming generation; for demonstrating how athletics constitute a vitally important "laboratory aspect" of the overall educational process; for giving added meaning for Princeton to the time-worn axiom, "home-town boy makes good," he is Town Topics' nominee for Carnival Coming. For the 12th time since the Princeton Skating Club was formed in 1935, a gay ice carnival will be staged in Baker Rink. Co-sponsors of this year's affair (first in three years) are the Skating and Rotary Clubs. The date: Saturday, March 12.

Varied production numbers will include an ice ballet, as well as exhibitions by outstanding figure skaters, who will be on hand for the annual Eastern Championships. Proceeds from the sale of tickets will benefit the Rotary Club's College Scholarship Fund.

Tickets will be sold on a general admission basis to the championships Friday morning, afternoon and evening, as well as Saturday morning and afternoon. All seats in the Rink will be reserved for Saturday night's carnival.

Tickets are priced at $2.40 for the end stands and $3.60 for side stands for the carnival. They may be obtained before the public sale by writing the Rotary Club, P. O. Box 662, with checks made payable to the club and a stamped envelope accompanying the application. The deadline is next Thursday, February 24.

Vehicle Agency Located. Maurice P. Coffee, Princeton's new Motor Vehicle Agent, announced this week that his offices will be located in a new brick building now being completed just above the corner of Witherspoon Street

There's a Reason

The effects of the driest January on record (.48 inches of precipitation) have been exactly as expected: six different snowfalls in the first half of February.

Total for the month is already 6.8 inches, the normal figure for the entire 28 days. Road maintenance crews in the borough and township have been working far harder than usual, largely because the snow has frequently turned to ice and required constant sanding. (For a picture of a baker's dozen Princetonians who found the wintry setting much to their liking, see page eight.)

and Franklin Avenue, (Princeton Hospital side).

The gimmick in the situation which has had motorists in confusion during the past few weeks is this: because the building is just being finished, final details have made the exact opening date of the agency uncertain. Next Wednesday is the target date.

Mr. Coffee reports that space in the rear of the building and on nearby streets (meterless at present) will make parking equal or better than that at the previous 354 Nassau Street location. Office space will be greater, he said. He added that a location in the Shopping Center had also been under consideration.

YM Progress Report. The drive to build Princeton's new joint YMCA-YWCA building this Tuesday reached $491,510. Of the total, $335,200 was reported by the special gifts committee and $136,310 by the teams organization. The figure reported by the general solicitation workers is believed to be a Princeton record in funds raised through a general house-to-house canvass.

While Tuesday's session was the closing general organization meeting, final reports on all worker solicitation will be issued two weeks from Saturday. Workers reported that many prospective givers have not yet been visited during the four weeks of the campaign.

Swift and Smooth. The Township Committee, after many a stormy, prolonged session in recent months (and recent years, in fact), dispensed with its business on Monday in short order, completing a regular meeting in what may have been record time for the post-war decade. It took less than an hour.

Changes in the police department were a major order of business, as was the passage of an ordinance requiring a "mainten-

The recommendation to state authorities for election re-districting is expected to receive approval in time for the primary elections. District 4 had 1,051 registered voters last November and it is customary to divide an election machine district when it crosses the 1,000-voter mark.

A new District 5 will be created out of the part southeast of Snowden Lane. The total of registered voters (409) and estimated growth (260) in the new district will be 669, while District 4 will have a total of 796 (642 registered and 154 estimated growth).

In other action, the committee rescinded (with the issue now settled for the moment) its authorization for a Shopping Center bus service. Stuart Robson was continued for another three months as acting tax assessor and Mayor Wallace officially proclaimed February 20-26 as "Brotherhood Week."

Boards Reorganize. Mrs. Thelma C. Young has been elected president of the borough Board of Education for the coming year, while Mrs. Kate H. Nicoll continues in the position in the township. Reorganization meetings were held Monday night.

Mrs. Young was elected to the borough board this month for the first time, replacing Dr. Elizabeth H. Cawley, who resigned to accompany her husband, a member of the University faculty, to England on a leave of absence. Jeremiah S. Finch was named vice-president.

In the township, the Rev. Dr. J. Donald Butler became vice-president, replacing George W. Conover. Mrs. Nicoll named these committees:

Finance, William L. Wilson, chairman, and John W. Landis; grounds and buildings, Mr. Conover chairman, and John K. White; instruction, James H. Perkins, chairman, and Mr. Landis; publicity and transportation, Mrs. Louise N. Darke; building, Mr. White; future sites, Dr. Butler.

Dr. Daly Resigns. Princeton Township also made news this week with the announcement of the resignation of Dr. Radcliffe Daly, assistant principal of the Valley Road School. He will have completed his third year here when his resignation becomes effective on June 30.

Dr. Daly has accepted a position as principal of a new elementary school at Irvington-on-Hudson, N. Y. He will work with the superintendent of schools and the high school principal in revising the present curriculum toward more continuity in the learning sequence, with the possibility of introducing the non-departmentalized, or "core" type, curriculum.

(For news of another Princetonian who will leave a post in which he is particularly well known, see page 11).

Branch Building Changes Hands. Lawrence E. Benson, president of Benson and Benson, this week acquired the Branch Building, a Princeton landmark at 33 Witherspoon Street for more than four decades.

Mr. Benson, whose market and consumer research organization has offices in the building, bought the three-story structure from Mrs. Alice Branch Pierce, whose late husband erected the building early in this century. The sale price was not disclosed.

Mr. Benson pointed out that his —Continued on Page 4

Porcelain Nobility, French Haviland china is surely the aristocrat of all the china, and Princeton women who set their most formal tables with Haviland may now buy it at The Cummins Shop, 96 Nassau. This is French Haviland—not the American-made—and it comes from the factory at Limoges. (For other news of the Cummins Shop, see ad on page 8.)

Two patterns are here, and they have been chosen especially for mixing, and for filling in those sets that can no longer be replenished because they came from Haviland factories bombed out during the war. One pattern, "Floral," has a center floral spray with hair-lines of brick-red coloring that give the bouquet a dimension in depth. The other pattern is plain. Both designs have classic shapes and fluted edges. Both have a gold edge and a gold line on the shoulder.

Limoges are as light in weight as they are in appearance, fragile and yet durable with that toughness that only the finest china has. If you want to start a collection of Haviland, this is the time and place. If you would like to fill in your broken set, the Cummins Shop will match any active Limoges pattern you have.

Considering the weather, the idea of carrying a fruit-topped straw basket along Nassau Street has its limitations. However, we will be combining about the heat before long, and to welcome in the summer The Cummins Shop has baskets from China, Italy, Germany—every part in the world.

They are natural or white, and they come in all sizes. Clusters of fruit and bouquets of flowers have been arranged and fastened to the baskets by domestic hands.

The biggest one is six inches and 14 across and would hold a whole picnic. These are not hand-bags by the way—they are baskets. In this circuitous way you avoid paying a handbag tax.

You do, however, pay a tax on some pastel leather clutch purses done in lemon yellow, light blue, pink, white, olive, red, beige or copper. There are two zipper pockets, one in the flap and one under the flap when it's closed. Price is $3.50 including tax.

For the Father of our country buy a white handkerchief embroidered with red cherries all around. And there's a white and green shamrock waiting its turn in the wings. We can hardly wait to see the Fourth of July one.

Muffin Basket. These basket bags of mother's have been scaled down for the Sunday School crowd and we found the collection (but not the Sunday School collection) at Allen's, 131 Nassau. They are white, mostly, though some are natural. We liked a woven plastic that looks like straw, and a box bag with prissy little straw pom-poms on top—much more dignified than mother's. If you prefer fabric, there is a white linen draw-string, too.

"Baby Pullman" is actually a full drawing-room. Laid out flat, it consists of three connected panels of massonite, hinged together, the widest in the middle. All three are covered with padding and plastic. The "Pullman," laid in a car, will fill the whole area between the back of the back seat and the back of the front seat, giving your child crawl space, sleeping accommodations and room to roam without danger of a tumble.

For a small baby, you can lift up the two outside panels making a bed with two protective sides. Or you can lift up one panel and make enough room in the back seat for mother, or whoever. It costs $14.95 and for an extra $2.00 you may buy a screen to cover it completely. In this way it can serve a very useful purpose outside the car.

Polly Flinders and Kate Greenaway have small dresses for spring wardrobes. Here's a gingham with matching gloves, for instance, and a dress with three tiered skirt and just enough smocking at the waist to satisfy mother and pacify a daughter who considers smocking juvenile. Small irregular permanent pleats are the feature in a separate skirt, cream color with little blue houses spaced here and there.

Parties call for a size two organdy with rosebuds and pinnafores, (rosebuds sometimes blue, sometimes rose), or red stars embroidered on the panels of a white organdy skirt. A coral jumper in ocelot has a lacey blouse under it—the jumper can be worn later as a sun-dress.

Snippy Chips. Barbecued potato chips belong in a category with garlic ice cream. Yum! We were surprised, therefore, to discover that the barbecued potato chip exists and is being sold at the Food, Mart, 20 Witherspoon, for 29 cents a bag. We took some home. They are mildly spiced, like domestic chili con carne, and they have a slightly tomato flavor. We suggest them for adult cocktail snacks rather than for school lunches. If your children don't like high seasonings, —Continued on Page 21 firm is a growing organization and the purchase will insure space requirements in the coming period. At present the building has ten tenants. The new owner intends to improve the building-in-line with development of the Borough's central business area.

The building has a notable past. It housed the community's first movie auditorium and was the scene of rehearsals for Princeton University's Triangle Club as well as for various athletic events.

Hospital Nominees Named. Four incumbents, Mrs. R. Kenneth Fairman, George J. Griffin, Mrs. Berne Locke and Dr. William H. York, will be up for reelection to the board of trustees at the 35th annual meeting of the Princeton Hospital Corporation on Monday, February 28, at 8 p.m. in the First Presbyterian Church. Dr. Franklin Dunn, who received nominations on behalf of the trustees, has announced that Berne Locke, 100 Freely Brook Road, president and publisher of the Wall Street Journal and publisher of The Pocket, has been nominated for a three-year term along with the four incumbents. Mr. Kilgore has been nominated to fill the vacancy created by the retirement of Norvell B. Samuels, who during the past year conducted an unexcelled term of the late Curtis W. McGraw, former hospital president.

Committee Contributes $15,000. The Hospital Aid Committee, one of Princeton's oldest and most active volunteer service groups, has contributed $15,000 to the hospital during the past eight months as payment on its pledge of $35,000 for the construction of the clinical pathology laboratory.

The most recent gift of $5,000 towards the pledge, which makes possible a major addition to the hospital's diagnostic facilities, raises the Hospital Aid Committee's total contributions to approximately $175,000, an average of nearly $5,000 a year since the organization was established in 1918.

Towns Untangled. Four Princetonians ribbed in the money in the Tangle Towns contest sponsored by the New York Herald Tribune. However, the lion's share went away; first prize of $16,000 went to Arthur Freilich of Ardmore, Pa.

Redeemers of $5 each were George M. K. Baker, 82 Hatfield Avenue; Mrs. Frank Hubby, 85 Westcott Road; Leo P. McGillem, Drake's Corner Road; and Stephen Weidenbörner, 1903 Hall, Princeton University.

First National in Top 6. The First National Bank of Princeton stands in the top six percent of banks in the nation exclusive of mutual savings banks, based on its deposits as of December 31.

The announcement was made by President John P. Poe and is based on figures released by the American Banker.

The First National is listed as number 871 among nearly 15,000 banks in the U. S. This represents a gain of 49 places over its 1964 ranking of 920.

Park Directors Named. The election of six directors of the Marquand Park Foundation to guide its development for public use was announced this week. Mrs. Frederick Mihoffland will serve as president, with Edmund S. DeLang as vice-president and Oliver Spaulding, secretary-treasurer. Other directors are Mrs. Harold Hochschild, Mrs. Douglas Delaney and Richard W. Colman, Jr.

The large tract, one of the few that remains in its natural state in the borough, contains 70 different trees and shrubs which have been identified by James Clark, University horticulturalist. These will be marked with plastic labels, with maps showing their location to be made available.

An anonymous donor has contributed 1,000 daffodil bulbs, which have been planted by girl scouts. Other organizations have volunteered their services in beautifying the area, while borough workmen have put in many hours removing trees downed by recent hurricanes.

The park was formerly part of the estate of the late Professor and Mrs. Allan W. Marquand and was given to the municipality by their daughters and sons-in-law in their memory. Those who wish to contribute toward its future as an arboretum and bird sanctuary are asked to send their checks to the Marquand Park Foundation, care of the Princeton Bank and Trust Company.

Tantum Accepts New Post. Ellwood C. Tantum, assistant treasurer of Princeton Bank and Trust Company, has resigned his post here to accept the position of executive vice-president of the Hightstown Trust Company. Mr. Tantum has been associated with Bank and Trust since 1946.

Joseph P. Catelli, treasurer of the bank, and Mrs. Lillian V. S. Stout, assistant treasurer, attended the fourth annual Graduate Bankers Seminar for graduates of the New Jersey Bankers Association public relations school.

George R. Cook 3rd, bank president, has been appointed a member of the board of directors of the newly-formed alumni association of the public relations school, held annually at Princeton University.

Veterans Housing Vacancy. Applications will be taken through next Friday for the vacancy in the Township's veterans' housing project on River Road.

Applicants must be veterans and Township residents now or immediately prior to service. Applications should be filed at the Township Clerk's office.

Company B Inspected. Princeton's Company B of the 253rd Tank Battalion received its annual Regular Army inspection at its regular drill this week. Lt. Col. W. J. Mitchell conducted the inspection, which is designed to determine the fitness of National Guard units.

Col. Mitchell was greeted by Capt. Stanley L. Donald, company commander, and 2nd Lt. Nicholas J. Bartolino. Maj. Harry Cooke, commander of the 253rd; Warrant Officer Frank Giudici, battalion adjutant; and Lt. Col. Leon Gladding, unit instructor, also took part.

Officers Elected. The Princeton Small Animal Rescue League has announced its officers and members of its board of directors for the coming year. Those chosen are Mrs. Allen W. Stephens, president; Mrs. J. C. Ottenger, vice-president; Mrs. Robert N. Smyth, treasurer, and Henry R. Martin, secretary. Members of the board include Mrs. W. Gould Jones, Mrs. Frederic Milholland, Miss Emily Myrick, Paul Tomlinson, Dr. Maurice Smith, C. Crawford Sprigg, and Mrs. P. MacKay Sturges.

The league pointed out that its operations are carried on with the cooperation and support of the Mayor and Council of the Borough of Princeton. The police forces of the community also cooperate with the group.

Less than 200 people in the Princeton community give to the support of the Small Animal Rescue League, it was further reported. Those wishing to aid in the organization's work may mail their contributions to the league, Post Office Box 294.

Alumni Day Scheduled. Nearly 1,000 Princeton University alumni, representing more than 50 graduated Princeton classes, will return to the campus Saturday for the 41st annual mid-winter meeting of the Princeton National Alumni Association. Highlights of the occasion will include a report on the "State of the University" and an address by Dr. Mervin J. Kelly, president of Bell Telephone Laboratories, Inc. Among those attending the Governor Meyner removed state retail price controls on milk without warning this week, creating the strong possibility of a two-cent a quart saving for consumers. At the same time, there were predictions of a price war that could create serious financial problems for dealers and producers.

Milk Price War Looms

With state controls still in effect for the farm price, dealers are expected to turn to supplies available in New York, Pennsylvania and Delaware. In New York, for example, the wholesale price per quart is between nine and ten cents, about three cents less than in New Jersey.

Under the now-abandoned price fixing regulations, the minimum charge per quart here has been 23 cents in stores and 24.5 cents delivered. Dairy industry leaders, combatting the problem of an over-supply of milk for years, have predicted that a price war "would eventually force 50% of the dealers out of business."

meeting will be the Rev. Paul Martin of 8 Evelyn Place, one of the two surviving members of the Class of 1882. A resident of Princeton for more than a half-century, the 92-year-old Mr. Martin heads the list of some 29,000 living alumni as the "Senior Alumnus" of the University.

Dr. Kelly, a research physicist currently serving as chairman of the Advisory Council to the University's Department of Electrical Engineering, will speak at the luncheon-meeting in Dillon Gymnasium. Other speakers on the program will be President Harold W. Dodds and Dean J. Douglas Brown; Dean of the University Faculty.

Scopa's Sold. The University Cleaners and Laundry has acquired Scopa's Cleaners, a firm operated for many years at 36 Nassau Street. Scopa's has been owned by Leon Sloan for the past year.

John A. Archer, manager of University Cleaners, announced this week that expanded service will be offered through the Nassau Street location. The firm presently operates from its main plant at 36 Moore Street and at a branch in the Shopping Center.

laundry, cleaning, all garment maintenance services and the fast dry cleaning or shirt service, enabling customers to bring in these items as late as 10 a.m. and receive them by 4:30 the same day.

Proceeds Donated. A gift of $300 to the YMCA-YWCA Building Fund Campaign from the proceeds of last month's concert by Marina Anderson is among the donations announced this week by the 30 members of the Friendship Club of Princeton.

The concert in McCarter Theatre was the club's major fund-raising event of the year. The membership has voted to send the following additional checks: $250 to a student nurse from Princeton to enable her to continue her studies; $200 to a family left homeless by a recent fire, and $10 to a convalescent patient in Princeton Hospital.

Founded in 1932 by Mrs. Bertha Hill Brandon, the present president, the Friendship Club has annually held teas, dinners, sales and concerts to raise funds for worthwhile local causes.

Red Cross News. The appointment of five division leaders for the annual Red Cross fund drive to be conducted in March were announced this week by Arthur Wengel, general chairman for the campaign. Mrs. Herryman Maurer, Mrs. John W. Landis, Miss Eleanor Weld, Mrs. John H. Bayer and Mrs. Thomas S. Dignan will organize captains and team members for the residential canvassing under Waller C. Johnson.

Mr. Wengel also announced

Know Your Signals!

The sounding of Princeton's air raid sirens on Wednesday and Thursday were part of a statewide drive conducted by the New Jersey Division of Civil Defense to acquaint people with the meaning of the signals.

The test will be repeated this Friday and again on March 2, 3 and 4 at 8 p.m. The first fluctuating three-minute wail was the Red (Danger) Alert and the second, three one-minute blasts with two-minute silences between the the White (All Clear) signal.

Thomas S. Dignan of Springdale Road, deputy state Civil Defense and Disaster Control director, commented: "It is our belief that the great majority of the people . . . are totally unfamiliar with the meaning of the various attack warning signals. Knowing these signals could mean the difference between life and death for thousands should we ever get a 'Condition Red'."

that Raymond A. Bowers, president of Lewis C. Bowers and Sons, has been named chairman of the special gifts division. The 1955 goal for the local chapter is $38,915.

The Princeton chapter has issued an urgent appeal for volunteers for the Motor Corps, which performs such services as transporting patients to clinics, blood donors to the hospital, and chapter workers to the Fort Dix Army Hospital. Information on the forthcoming course is available at the Red Cross Headquarters, tel. 2404.

A new Red Cross Canteen and Disaster Mass-Feeding course is also being planned to start at the end of this month. The course is designed to prepare the Princeton area for the possibility of a local or national emergency. Further details may be obtained at the 71 University Place headquarters.

Annual Appeal Made. The annual appeal for clothing and funds is being made in this area by American Relief for Central Europe, Inc. Dr. Otto A. Piper, chairman of the campaign, has announced. The clothing collected is used to aid needy families and individuals, most of them living in the Soviet Zone of Germany.

Last year's drive enabled the Princeton committee to mail parcels of used clothing with a total weight of around 6,000 pounds to about 250 needy families and individuals. Funds contributed to the drive were used to defray the rise in the parcel post rate of about 65 percent.

In making his appeal, Dr. Piper stated that "since the Russians have stopped completely the direct distribution of relief on the part of the international relief organizations, the kind of individualized work in which our Committee is engaged has assumed increased significance. There is nothing that keeps up the morale of the people living under the Communistic regime as effectively as does the experience that the people in the free world have not forgotten them."

Financial contributions to American Relief for Central Europe should be mailed to John W. Traegler, vice-president of the First National Bank and treasurer of the relief committee. Clothing may be left at Scopa's, (now a branch of University Cleaners) 36 Nassau Street, or brought to Dr. Piper's home, 58 Mercer Street.

PTA to Meet. "Teaching Arithmetic" will be the subject of the next meeting of the Princeton Township P.T.A. on Wednesday, at 8 p.m. in the Valley Road School. The meeting is being planned by Mrs. J. Donald Butler and Dr. Radcliffe R. Daly.

Miss Rosalind Mulcahey, consultant to a textbook company, will be speaker of the evening. Following her talk the audience will break up into grade groups, giving parents and teachers an opportunity to discuss and formulate questions to ask Miss Mulcahey.

Moderators of the discussion groups will be Mrs. Arthur Keiser for grades one through three, John Dobbin for grades four and five, and Robert Serrell for grades six through eight. Refreshments following the meeting will be served by the fourth grade mothers.

St. Paul's to Entertain. St. Paul's Blessed Virgin Mary Sodality will hold an informal Valentine Dance in the school auditorium this Friday from 9 to 12 p.m. Music for the affair will be furnished by the "Tony Fem Quintet."

from Yvonne Prince, Ruthann Mack, Ruth Perry, Dorothy Slater, Melissa Kay and Lillian Scalerati. Students from Cathedral High in Trenton, and Princeton in New Brunswick and Villa Victoria in Trenton have also been invited.

Nine Receive Webelos Award. Nine members of Cub Scout Pack 77 were awarded the Webelos Badge, highest award in Cub Scouting, by Cumamater Gustave Elscmann at the annual Father and Son Dinner of the pack held last week at the First Presbyterian Church.

Those honored were Allison Altieri, Ronald Decker, Richard Dunlap, Gordon Lutz, Richard Pichette, Richard Provenzano, Joseph Ramallo, Roger Slapback and Gordon Wood. Richard Dunlap, Gilbert Fisher and Joseph Ramallo were presented Boy Scout acknowledgments upon their graduation into Boy Scouts.

Guests at the dinner were Dr. Warren Findley, president of the Valley Road PTA; Princeton University football captains Royce Flippa and John Henz; and Charles Witman, a former member of the pack. Dens one and three tied for the Parents Award by having 100% father and son attendance. The Webelos Den won the Honor Den award.

Dr. Gulliksen to Speak. The Women's College Club of Princeton will meet at Avalon Monday at 3:30 to hear Dr. Harold O. Gulliksen, a Professor in the psychology Department of Princeton University. Dr. Gulliksen will speak on "Understanding Human Behavior with the Aid of Mathematics."

Hostess in charge of the affair will be Mrs. John H. deGroot. She will be assisted by Mrs. Albert Elasser, Mrs. Alex Eidl, Mrs. Ray Bryson, Mrs. Cyrus Gordon, Mrs. Warren Findley and Mrs. Ralph Fox.

Baked Foods Sale Planned. The Princeton Post No. 76, American Legion, will hold a sale of baked foods at the Princeton Shopping Center from 9 a.m. to noon Saturday. Proceeds from the sale will go to the Legion's Welfare Fund.

Miss Catherine Whyte, chairman of the Welfare Committee for the Legion post, is also chairman of the bake sale. Anyone wishing to contribute baked goods to the sale or cash towards the Welfare Fund is asked to contact Mrs. Whyte at 80 Snowden Lane (0510).

Frank Bird, commander of the post, has announced that the next Promenade of the Mercer County Volunteer, No. 235, Forty and Eight, will be held Thursday, February 24, at 55 Mercer Street. Boys State Chairman William Birch has also announced that at the last regular meeting of the post, the group decided to sponsor two boys from Princeton High School to the Boys State Convention to be held at Rutgers University in July.

St. Paul's PTA to Entertain. The St. Paul's School PTA will sponsor a card party Tuesday at 8 p.m. in the school auditorium for the benefit of the St. Paul's athletic program. Scrabble will also be played and there will be prizes for each table.

Mrs. Thomas L. Brophy and Mrs. Kenneth C. Cromwell are co-chairmen of the affair. They will be assisted by Mrs. Joseph Fasanella, Mrs. William Corcoran, Mrs. Albert Lippman, Mrs. Reuben Johnson, Mrs. Patrick Corvino, Mrs. Edward McVaugh, Mrs. Austin Brerley and Mrs. Don Tanaka. Refreshments will be served and tickets may be obtained through the school or at the door.

of new music, especially works of contemporary American composers. He will illustrate his lecture by performing compositions of Stravinsky, Schoenberg, Aaron Copland and others.

Six RCA Scientists Honored. Six scientists of the RCA Laboratories were honored by the Princeton Engineers last week. All six have been named recipients of national IRE awards and will be honored at the IRE convention in New York next month.

The group honored included Dr. Harold B. Law, who will receive the V. K. Zworykin Gold Medal, awarded annually by the IRE for the year's most important contribution to television. The award will be made to Dr. Law for his work on development of the color television picture tube.

Other scientists, all of whom have received certificates as Fellows of the IRE, are: Dr. G. L. Fredendall, for his application of network analysis and syntheses to television problems; Dr. E. G. Linder, for his contribution to microwave electronics; Dr. E. G. Hamberg, for his theoretical analysis of electronic devices; George C. Saklat, for his contributions to Miss Willis Wins Fellowship. Miss Katherine Lee Willis, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Willis, 128 Fitz-Randolph Road, has been awarded the Southern Mountain Workshop, a fellowship given annually to a member of the senior class at Smith College for nine months' training and recreational work in the Southern Appalachian region.

Miss Willis is the 11th consecutive winner of the Southern Mountain Workshop, the only institution of its kind under the joint sponsorship of a college and the Council of Southern Mountain Workers. The unique fellowship carries a stipend of $1,000 which is provided entirely by the Smith College Service Fund with board and lodging provided by the communities served.

After a training period at the John C. Campbell Folk School in Brasstown, N. C., the winner lives and works in communities in Kentucky, Tennessee, North Carolina or Georgia. A graduate of Princeton Tech School, Miss Willis is taking the honors program in Biology at Smith.

Hun Reunion Planned. Plans are being made for a late spring reunion at the Hun School, Dr. Paul R. Chewch, headmaster of the school, has announced. Lester Robbins Jr., a freshman at Princeton University from Hamilton Square, has been named chairman of the affair, to be held at the school June 17 and 18.

Dr. Chewch has also announced the addition of six students to the Headmaster's List at Hun. Those added are Richard Conole, James Davis, George Griggs, John Matheke, Robert Mudd and Harry Smith.

Miscellany. Daughters have been born to Mr. and Mrs. A. C. Reeves Hicks, Princeton Junction; Mr. and Mrs. Mac Morris, Belle Mead; Mr. and Mrs. Robert Stron, 100 Stockton Street; Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Wagner, 19 Jefferson Road; Mr. and Mrs. John Pemickton, R. D. 1.

Parents of sons include Mr. and Mrs. Charles B. House, R.D. 1; Mr. and Mrs. Peter Nodde, 15 Charlton Street; Mr. and Mrs. Charence G. Heininger, 219-C Ewing Street; Mr. and Mrs. Harvey Cahn, 486 Ewing Street.

Five to ten hour-long talks on photography will be given Monday evenings by Walter R. Schare of the Princeton University Store in Room 229, Guyot Hall. The first will be given next Monday night at 8 o'clock. Admission may be obtained without charge upon registering at the camera counter in the University Store.

The Public Library will be closed for painting from Tuesday through Thursday next week. Books due back within this period will be extended until Friday without charge.

Cleone Keller, who has been assisting Audree Estey in the Ballet Society's classes this season, will be on television Sunday at 1:30, Channel 4. She will appear with the Myra Kinch Company on the program, Frontiers of Faith.

Two swans were frozen into the ice in Lake Carnegie last week when the temperature dipped 45 degrees in less than 24 hours.

They were rescued by agents of the Mercer County S.F.C.A.

An Anniversary Story...

... NEXT WEEK, the Cummins Shop will celebrate, not only the birthday of George Washington but it's 20th anniversary at its present location.

Yes, there really is a "Miss Cummins" — two of them, in fact. It was in 1923 that May and Daisy Cummins set up shop on the second floor of the building where Zinder's Stationery Store is now, used the front room for a shop of miscellaneous gifts, and also made ladies hats to order.

Freshman living quarters were on the third floor and whether it was due to noisy freshmen above or to a fast-growing business, the Cummins Shop records discreetly do not say, but in any case, the sisters moved in 1925 to the building now occupied by the Diana Shop, and soon after to the ground floor of the building where Yeoman's and Leigh's are now.

Here, at 108 Nassau during those flaming twenties, the Cummins partners sold India print bedspreads, lamps and shades, pillows in tapestry and brocade. There was a flourishing trade in such high-fashion items as scarves for mission tables, Turkish tapestries thickly populated with sheiks on camels, brassware, copper and glassware.

The shop at 108 was bright with yellow and green shelves, made for the Cummins by Mr. Mershon Green, now over 90 years old and still active with hammer and saw. The floor was covered with black linoleum, but Daisy Cummins spatter-painted it with a paint-soaked sponge on the end of a stick—just in case you think that decorating trick is a modern one.

It was in February, 1935, that Nelson Deyo, the present manager, appeared on the scene. He had been associated for some time with Spaulding Jewelers in Chicago, and had been acquainted with the Cummins sisters since his freshman year at Princeton. The business was incorporated when he joined the staff and bought an interest. Then he, the Cummins sisters, and locks, stocks and barrels moved from 108 Nassau to their present quarters at 96 Nassau, the location which had just been vacated by the old post-office.

Before this time, May and Daisy Cummins had carried Spode and some gift chinaware. Mr. Deyo added Wedgwood, Royal Doulton, Minton and Adam's Calyx Ware. Twenty patterns in dinnerware—that was about the maximum number. Today, there are some 90 patterns—stored on 700 feet of steel shelving in the basement.

In 1944, after 20 years of directing shop activities, the sisters retired to the little house on Moore Street, where they still live. Six more years, and the shop had burst its seams to such an extent that Mr. Deyo closed its doors in the summer of 1950 and signed up the Bowers Construction Company to do a complete renovating and redecorating job. The specially-designed drawers to hold and display china were Raymond Bowers' invention.

In all the years since 1923, there has been a gradual turn-over to new interests: no one has ever completely sold out to anyone else. Today, "Gus" Hulit, who has been with the Cummins Shop for three years, is gradually buying an increasing interest in the business.

Now at the beginning of a new decade, the staff of the Cummins Shop would like to thank the friends who, over the years, have always chosen their gifts of fine china and glassware from the Cummins stock and the hundreds of other customers who have been such loyal friends.

Next week's Town Topics will give you details about the 20th Anniversary Celebration on Friday, February 25.

Music in Princeton

McCARTER THEATRE

The Cleveland Symphony Orchestra, conducted by George Szell, played Monday evening at McCarter Theatre. Music of Wagner, Smetana, and Strauss composed the first half of the program. Prokofiev alone was represented on the second half.

The concert opened with a professional rendition of Wagner's "Prelude to Die Meistersinger von Nurnberg." The first martial theme was introduced by the brass choir with impressive precision, and the second and third important themes along with their subordinate counter-melodies were rendered with a genuine expressive quality befitting Wagner's great prelude.

Mr. Szell's insistence on precision was evident in the section in which the first theme, played with Bachian counterpointal embroideries by the woodwinds, was rendered with brittle clarity. And the final tour de force combination of the three main themes was shown off to its most stunning advantage.

Smetana's Symphonic Poem, "The Moldau," was given in agreeable reading; but Strauss' "Till Eulenspiegel's Merry Pranks" was brilliantly performed. The slightest subtle, witty line was brought out with a dare-devil may care assurance that astonished the listeners. No phrase, no dynamic was left behind in the shadows. Every note had its best Sunday suit on. The Strauss symphonic poem was really quite breath-taking.

Unfortunately, the first movement of the Prokofiev Symphony No. 5 in B Flat, Opus 100 was apallingly whisked past the ears of the audience by Mr. Szell. Mr. Szell's opening tempo ruined the character of the first theme, transforming the broad, lyrical line of the solo flute into a thin, jagged line. It was in essence nearly as bad as playing a 33 RPM record at 78 RPM speed.

The second theme, played by the clarinet to the accompaniment of arpeggiated strings, and the subordinate second theme, played by spicatto bowing violins, were barely passable at Mr. Szell's tempo; but the first theme and the development section never were able to withstand Mr. Szell's assault.

Granted, the movement was rendered technically with unearthly perfection, but spiritually, it was on the Pennsylvania Turnpike. Because of the jet-like tempo, the second-beat drum rolls in what was meant to be a majestic coda sounded as if the Tynpani player accidentally dropped his stick on the drum. It was quite an embarrassing interpretation of the movement.

The second movement was treated with much more regard for its material and it sounded very strong. But Mr. Szell read the Adagio of the beautiful third movement as if it were marked Andante Con Moto. Throughout the Prokofiev Symphony one could imagine only that Mr. Szell and his musicians had to catch a train. In his rendition of the Symphony Mr. Szell, who certainly is a well-trained conductor, ought to avoid emulating a conductor of trains.

The last movement—which recalls the thematic material of the preceding movements, in this respect similar to the Beethoven Ninth Symphony—was performed with the appropriate tempo and gusto. It is only fair to add that the phrasings which Mr. Szell drew from the orchestra were impeccable. He needs simply to observe more keenly the character of the themes in the first and third movements; this will transform flat-rock into gold.

In his essay on Beethoven's Ninth Symphony, Wagner attacks the routine Kapellmeisters who reproduce Beethoven's Symphonies with tempos that have no sensible relationship to the themes. In his opinion this misdemeanor is the result of ignorance or insensibility, and he recommends that the Kapellmeisters sing Beethoven's themes to themselves in order to understand their spirit before they arbitrarily set a foolish tempo. Perhaps Mr. Szell might follow Wagner's advice and re-evaluate his tempos.

SERIES TWO

Ralph Kirkpatrick, the renowned harpsichordist, will give a concert in McCarter Theatre this Tuesday evening at 8:30. Tickets for the fourth presentation in Series Two of the University Concerts are now on sale at the University Store and may also be purchased at the box office Tuesday evening.

Mr. Kirkpatrick will devote his entire recital to the sonatas of Domenico Scarlatti, one of the great keyboard composers of all time. Scarlatti was born in Naples in 1685 and died in Madrid in 1757, after a career that included holding the post of director of music at St. Peter's in Rome.

Mr. Kirkpatrick, both as a performer of world-wide fame for his mastery of the harpsichord and as a writer, has played a major role in spreading the reputation of Scarlatti. His biography of the composer was published in 1953 by the Princeton University Press.

News of the Churches

Nauss Accepts Call. The Rev. Milton J. Nauss, pastor of the Messiah Lutheran Church since 1947, has accepted a call to Calvary Lutheran Church, Buffalo, N. Y. He will leave his Princeton congregation in mid-March, and following his departure the church will have a series of visiting pastors until a permanent successor is chosen.

When the Rev. Mr. Nauss was called to Princeton slightly more than seven years ago, there was one Lutheran family in his parish. Today, Messiah Lutheran has about 215 communicant members and a Sunday attendance that hovers around 250. Church-goers from 18 communities, including a Pennsylvania town 20 miles away, come to Messiah Lutheran each Sunday for one of its two morning services.

After the Rev. Mr. Nauss came to Princeton in the winter of 1947, he began a house-to-house canvass of the community to determine the number of Lutheran families without a pastor or a church. Westminster Choir College donated its Chapel to the new group, and the Rev. Mr. Nauss led his first formal service there on Easter Sunday, 1947. Forty-eight persons attended.

Exactly three years ago, in February, 1952, the new Lutheran Church of the Messiah building was dedicated by the 140 communicants who were members at that time. The building is located on the corner of Nassau Street and Cedar Lane.

Pastors of the English District of the Missouri Synod, in which the Princeton congregation is located, are subject to call at any time. When a church calls a pastor, he must then deliberate and decide whether his services are needed most at his present church or at the church making the call.

Ash Wednesday. The six-week Lenten period of fasting and prayer will begin throughout the Christian world next week and many of Princeton's churches have planned special services in observance of Ash Wednesday.

At Trinity Episcopal Church, there will be services of Holy Communion at 6:50, 7:30, 8, 9, 10 and 11 a.m. Evening prayer will be offered at 6:15 p.m. and the Litany and Penitential Office will be read at 7:30 p.m.

The Princeton Methodist Church has planned a series of Wednesday evening Lenten talks by the Rev. Edward S. Zelley, minister of the Broad Street Methodist Church in Trenton, on the general subject, "Rules of the Road to Jerusalem." The topic for Ash Wednesday will be "Forward Sacrifice or Ease?" The talk will begin at 8 p.m.

Members and friends of the Second Presbyterian Church will gather on Ash Wednesday at 6:30 for a Super Conference. Dr. Samuel H. Moffett, lecturer at Princeton Seminary and former missionary in China and Korea, will speak on "The Christian Church and the Changing World." This is the first in a series of three Lenten Wednesday evening meetings. The other two are scheduled for March 9 and March 16.

Brother J. W. Fish of the Mt. Pisgah A.M.E. congregation will lead a special Ash Wednesday service at 8:30 p.m. The Rev. Milton J. Nauss will conduct the services at Messiah Lutheran Church at 8:15 p.m.

The first in a Lenten series of Bible Studies and Devotions will be held in the Chapel of the First Presbyterian Church on Ash Wednesday at 8 p.m. The Witherspoon Presbyterian Church will also hold services on Wednesday at 8:15 p.m.

There will be special masses at St. Paul's Roman Catholic Church on Ash Wednesday but the hours were not available at press time.

World Day of Prayer Set. Members of the Princeton Council of Churchwomen will be the sponsors of the 69th annual World Day of Prayer, a day to be observed next Friday, February 25, with identical services scheduled for 3 and 8 p.m. at the First Presbyterian Church. All communities in the Princeton area are invited to attend these two interdenominational services. Mrs. Orion Hoppey, Sr. of the First Presbyterian Church is chairman.

The Princeton Council is a unit of the General Department of Churchwomen of the National Council of Churches of Christ in America. The World Day of Prayer will be observed in 128 countries with the same service, prayer, meditation and music prepared by Jorgelina Lozada, minister of the Disciples Church of Buenos Aires, Argentina.

Next Thursday, February 24, the day before the World Day of Prayer, the Princeton Council of Churchwomen will sponsor a special service open to all children under the junior high school age. Mrs. Sherman Bates, Mrs. John Larsen and Mrs. Walter Boers are in charge.

Chapel Movies. Rosedale Chapel has arranged an evening of movies for members of the Rosedale Community, and they will be shown at the Chapel this Friday at 7:45. Four short films will be shown: "What do you know about New Jersey?" "Wind from the West," "Sandy Steps Out," and "Movie Star Nickle."

First Church Classes. Beginning this Monday at 4:30 p.m., Dr. John R. Bode will conduct a six-week series of talks for the High School Communicants' Class of Continued on Page 12

OPPORTUNITY - INSURANCE

We offer an excellent opportunity to ambitious men who are unable to meet financial obligations on their present salary. Salesmanship, selling, is the highest paid profession in the business world. If you can devote only 6 hours a week to selling, you can add $25 a week to your income.

We offer you the opportunity. We train you, we help you.

If you would like to sell, and are ready to work, you have the best chance to be included in our "Part-Time Selling" division.

MCCARTER THEATRE

"Bus Stop" Smooth. The notable craftsmanship of playwright William Inge and a remarkably strong production of his latest work "Bus Stop" are the best impressions this department carrier off from a visit to McCarter Theatre Friday evening.

The direction was sharp and the pace excellent for this point in the "Bus Stop" career; the Boris Aronson set was handsome; costuming and effects were just right.

Kim Stanley (whom this corner felt was a bit miscast, or else in a strangely conceived part) was again an outstanding performer; Anthony Ross, Phyllis Love, Elaine Stritch, Crahan Denton, Lou Polan and Patrick McVey were all convincing in an extremely strong cast; Jerome Courtland had only a few rough spots in a good portrayal of the rodeo star.

Perhaps the lurking suspicion here is that Mr. Inge in neatly dramatizing a slice of more or less domestic American showed his considerable skill in holding one's interest, but provided too little to be taken away from the theatre in the way of thought or memory.

With the exception of content, though, "Bus Stop" was genuinely pleasing. The lines were amusing and the theatrical quality high. Perhaps Mr. Inge's intent was only to create an interlude, involving plain humans. He accomplished this, but the people were a bit too plain.

Ballets Espagnols Coming. A troupe considered to be the best Spanish dance group to visit this country in many years, the Ballets Espagnols, will perform in the McCarter a week from Monday (February 28) at 8:30 p.m.

Teresa and Luisillo are the stars of the company, and Luisillo in particular has won outstanding praise from the nation's critics for his dancing. The choreography of the entire program is authentic, in contrast to that of a number of other Spanish groups which have toured in recent years.

An orchestra accompanies the dancers. The program includes dramatic, comic and traditional flamenco dances, and other features, among them the singing of Maria Vivo and that of El Nino de Almadene, the 70-year-old "star" of Spanish flamenco singers.

The McCarter is the finest theatre for the dance in this country, according to Richard Pleasant of the managing directors, whose experience covers virtually every major theatre in the country. He points to the fact that its stage is as large as that of the Met, while its 1077 seating capacity (with perfect sight lines) is only a third that of the spacious opera house.

Mail orders for Ballets Espagnols are now being accepted and the box office numbers are 9702 and 1319. Ticket prices will be held to the usual scale, despite the fact that the presentation is a musical show.

THE PLAYHOUSE

The Far Country (Feb. 16-19) puts Jimmy Stewart back in the wide open spaces, going through the formula of rancher-finally-defeats-villain to hold his area, this time in the Yukon. The story is active, uncomplicated and follows regular lines, with plenty of scenic photography in Technicolor. Walter Brennan, Ruth Roman, Corinne Calvet, Henry Morgan and others are featured.

The Country Girl (Feb. 20-26) brings Bing Crosby, Grace Kelly and William Holden together in a strong film based on the Clifford Odets play. The performers are all excellent in a story about a —Continued on Page 18

THE GAROEN

Unchained (Feb. 17-19) is a somewhat unusual film of a definitely unusual prison—an experimental one without bars, in which prisoners are taught to adjust to society. Elroy Hirsch plays a recalcitrant inmate, and the story handles various threads quite capably. Barbara Hale, Chester Morris and Todd Duncan are among others in the cast.

The Green Scarf (Feb. 21-23) has the touches and acting of a good British mystery drama, but not the pace or credibility of one. Michael Redgrave appears as a French lawyer for the defense, performing well in a protracted courtroom climax. Ann Todd, Kieron Moore and Leo Genn are the other principals.

12 O'Clock High (Feb. 24 Only) is an extremely good war film, combining the drama of men and planes. Gregory Peck, Hugh Marlowe, Dean Jagger and Millard Mitchell, head the excellent cast. It's a return engagement for the 1950 film.

Twist of Fate (Feb. 25-26) packages melodrama in reams. Filmed in the French Riviera coast, the

Scopes Trial Coming

Richard Pleasant and Isadora Bennett, managing directors for the McCarter, are angling for the tryout of "Inherit the Wind," a courtroom drama based on the famous "monkey trial" of 1925, in which a Tennessee school teacher was brought to trial for teaching evolution.

William Jennings Bryan and Clarence Darrow were the chief opposing lawyers in the test case and the furor was nationwide and of deep impact. The drama has been written by Jerome Lawrence and Robert E. Lee. Herman Shumlin will be the producer and Paul Muni has been signed to star.

In the wind is the possibility that the show may be given an extra long run here, something which might have considerable impact on Princeton's future as a tryout town. The offering is due in March.

picture has Ginger Rogers involved with various men, some slightly criminal and murderous. There's a fair amount of excitement as Miss Rogers and Jacques Bergerac (her husband) find out who's framing them for what.

PRINCETON TELEVISION

Next in the television series "Princeton '55" will be "A Greek Myth," presented by Dr. Francis R. B. Godolphin, dean of the college and former chairman of the classics department at Princeton. The half-hour program will be seen at 1 p.m. this Sunday over WECA-TV, Channel 4.

Dean Godolphin will discuss the interpretation placed on the Greek myth of Agamemnon, leader of the Greeks in the Trojan War, by the ancient dramatist Aeschylus and by the American dramatist Eugene O'Neill some 25 centuries later.

Professor Lewis V. Thomas contributed one of the finest programs in the series to date with his presentation of "The Near East" this past Sunday. His presentation of varied subject matter was interesting, informative and hard-hitting.

Dr. Thomas' voice and personality worked especially for him in gaining effective impact. Some skimping on his technical aids (particularly the maps) was unfortunate.

"BUSKINS AND SOCKS"

Members of the newly-formed "Buskins and Socks," a group of young persons interested in the theatre, have been rehearsing steadily on weekends for the forthcoming production of the comedy "Time Out for Ginger." The play will be presented on Friday and Saturday nights, February 25 and 26, in the auditorium.

The cast for the Ronald Alexander comedy is under the direction of Miss Ali Ghito, television actress and script writer. Jonathan Jay and Susan Kinnell will be seen as the parents of three teen-age daughters.

Ginger, youngest of the girls, is out for the boys' football team, among other things. The part will be taken by Sandra Jefferson, while others in the cast will include Martha Raubinger, Barbara Dilley, Morgan Holman, Cam McCluskey, Melissa Kay, Ken Boyd and Ted D'Arms.

Tickets may be obtained through any member of the cast or ordered through Elmore Day Jr., 35 Linden Lane. Ticket prices have been set at $1.60, $1.20 and 80 cents.

MURRAY THEATRE

Three Princeton actresses will return to the Murray Theatre stage in Theatre Intime's coming "Knight of the Burning Pestle." The Beaumont and Fletcher comedy will run for ten days, March 3 through 12. Tickets will go in sale shortly.

Mary Gonzales of Washington Road, Eetty Frohling of 12 Stockton Street and Elizabeth Barrie of 24 Hibben Road have been cast in major roles for the Jacobean work. Mrs. Gonzales will play The Citizen's Wife, a satiric role, while Miss Frohling is cast as the heroine of the play-within-the-play. Mrs. Barrie will be seen as the middle-class Mrs. Merrythought.

Miss Frohling and Mrs. Gonzales both appeared in the Community Players' production of "Summer and Smoke" this past fall, and Mrs. Barrie appeared in two plays with the University Players last summer.

Mrs. Gonzales, who also played in the recent "Madwoman of Chaillot" here, is a veteran of radio and television character roles and has appeared often with the Showcase Players. Miss Frohling was in the starring role in "Voice of the Turtle" in its West Coast tour and has been featured in television's Studio One and on local and network radio shows.

CHILDREN'S SERIES

A change has been made in the Children's Entertainment Series to bring "The Young Aztec Prince," latest production by the Children's World Theatre, to the McCarter on Wednesday, March 2. The new offering replaces the originally-scheduled "Ghost of Mr. Penny."

"The Young Aztec Prince" is considered to be a particularly attractive combination of entertainment and education for children in grades one through eight. It is based on research into the life of the ancient civilization that once centered around what is now Mexico City.

Tickets printed for "Mr. Penny" will be used for the new show. Single tickets at $1.35, 85 cents and 40 cents may be obtained by writing to Children's Entertainment, 80 Murray Place, or by phoning 2090-J. The box office will open at 1 p.m. on March 2.

First Place at Stake. With more than half the season gone and first place still very much in its possession, Princeton's hockey team this week comes up against the big one, Harvard's extremely able outfit which will be in Boker Rink Saturday for a contest that will do much to determine just how far the surprising Tigers can go this season. Because of Alumni Day activities earlier in the day in Dillon Gym, game time is 2:45.

With Bill Cleary and Captain Scott Colledge providing most of the power, Harvard has one of the top teams in the east. The Crimson walloped Dartmouth last Saturday, 10 to 0, jamming through several goals in the first 13 minutes, a tremendous performance against a team that had already beaten Yale twice. In 13 games this season, Cleary has made a total of 30 goals and assists.

Harvard was tied by Brown in its first Ivy League outing and has since trimmed Dartmouth twice. While the Tigers have already accomplished a good deal more than was expected of them, it is logical to feel that part of the reason they have been in first place most of the season is the way the schedule was laid out.

They have won the crowd-pleasing way, dishing up a sizeable amount of spirit and drive but if they turn back this power-laden Harvard sextet it will be a tremendous upset. Add to the fact that Princeton has only two seniors on the squad the loss of Roger Boscovick from the first line and Mike Erdman, a particularly promising sophomore defenseman, and you inevitably draw a picture of personnel stretched a bit thin through inexperience and injury. Hockey is not, however, much of a form sport. It is on the young team's obvious pleasure in tearing up the form charts on several occasions this season that hopes rest for Saturday.

Third Period Goals Win. It was a greater will to win that eventually beat Yale last weekend, the Orange and Black, jamming through two goals in the final round after more than 40 scoreless minutes. The first period was not even productive of a penalty; each team lost a man in the second but could not take advantage of the situation.

At 2:55 of round three, the first line put the Tigers ahead. Charlie Bauer, moved up from the third line to replace Boscovick, who dislocated his wrist at Providence, set up the play for Charlie Pratt. The latter fired a hard backhand shot at goalie George Scherer that ran up his arm and fell a few inches into the mouth of the cage.

Four minutes later, the Tigers had another. George Scraggs fed

Thirty-One Years Ago

The crowd of 2,000 which sat in on Princeton's 2-0 shut-out of Yale's hockey team last Saturday saw a feat by goalie Bill Van Alstyne that has rarely been achieved. It was the first time the Tigers have blanked the Blue in the sport since February 22, 1924.

For Nassau alumni who were here at the time, it is worth reporting that Howell Van Gerbig '24 scored the game's only goal and Mollard Colebrook '26 was the goalie. Van Alstyne, incidentally, spent part of his boyhood in Princeton when his father, a member of the Class of 1927, was a member of the University administration.

sophomore Kim Townsend from the right shoulder, Townsend's sharp shot going over Scherer's left shoulder and just below the top of the cage.

Yale was unable to retaliate, and when it lost a man for a tripping penalty with 2:19 to go, the Tigers controlled the puck to run out the clock. The teams will meet again Tuesday night at New Haven.

The standings:

	W.	L.	T.	Pts.
PRINCETON	3	1	0	6
Brown	2	2	1	5
Harvard	2	0	1	5
Dartmouth	2	4	0	4
Yale	1	3	0	2

Loss to Harvard Hurts. Loss of Dick Batt for the Brown and Harvard games last weekend proved more than the Princeton basketball team could counter, and when Dartmouth tripped Penn for the second time this season, the Tigers missed a golden opportunity to move into the thick of the race. Batt, whose shooting on breaking up the zone defense that every opponent throws against Princeton had been of major assistance, was ill and could not make the New England trip.

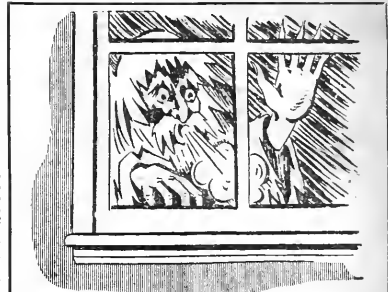

The Tigers fell 16 points behind Brown before launching a rally that pulled them through 57-55. At Cambridge on Saturday, however, their shooting fell to a low 38%, that accounted for just seven baskets in the last 20 minutes.

DURABLE TIGER: Hard-battling Johnny Butsch of the Princeton first line sails into the boards after taking a shot at George Scherer in the Yale cage Saturday in Baker Rink. Julian Kahle (2) and John Poinier (3) of the Elis made off with the puck but Tiger drive paid off with two third-period goals for 2-0 victory.

utes, Harvard won with ease, 69-37, after breaking away from a one-point (26-25) halftime margin.

It was John DeVoe's play at Providence that made victory possible. Hitting for 21 points, he kept cutting into the home team's margin in the second half and eventually the Tigers drew even at 55-55.

Brown sought to go ahead again but missed and Princeton grabbed the rebound. There were more than two minutes to go, DeVoe freezing the ball until less than ten seconds were left. He then drove in for a layup that split the basket and left the Drums with no time for retaliation.

Devoe also set the pace at Cambridge with 19. Hasbested getting 17 and John Easton 14. However, big Don Davidson, who has frequently been in double figures since earning a starting position was held scoreless from the floor, collecting only two Pals.

It was the Crimson's first victory at home this season in ten games. The defeat left the Tigers in fourth place, with a battle to stay in first division their most immediate problem.

Two games with Yale are next on the schedule, with the team going to New Haven Saturday and entertaining the Blue here next Tuesday. Starting time for the latter contest will be 7:15, to enable Yale to catch a train back to New Haven.

The Elis are experiencing one of their worst seasons in the sport, having won only two of 18 games. —Continued on Page 20

Four Records Set. Howe Ca-none's swimming team broke four Princeton records last week as defeated Navy at 2-3.5 in the 47 to 37. Sophomore Kent Simons set two new marks, 2:12.8 in the 220 to break a record that had stood for 14 years and 4:53.1 in the 440. The latter figure bettered the time he had set as a freshman.
Tom Jefford was caught in 2:38.5 in the breaststroke, clipping three tenths of a second off the time set by Ted McInnes. The latter's stroke, which had seen the record for this event pared by 20 seconds, has been outlived and the orthodox stroke is in use again, resulting in the slower times.

Jay Evans lowered his own mark for the 150-yard individual medley to 1:33.5. The Tigers face Army in Dillon Pool at 4 Saturday afternoon and are now assured of at least third place in the league standings, their top spot of the post-war decade.

Other Sports. The fencers and the squash team both had unbeaten records married last week, but the latter outfit still has a good chance of winning the national intercollegiate title. It lost to Navy, 5-4, but the 6-3 decision it gained earlier in the season over the middies of Annapolis is the only one that goes into the standings.

After losing Friday, John Con-roy's team came back to trim Harvard, 7-2. It must get by strong Army and Yale teams this month to claim the championship.

Lehigh took every bout but the 130-lb. class from the wrestling team at Bethlehem Saturday, rolling up a 27-5 margin. Heavyweight Jim MacAleer lost his first bout of the season by a 3-1 decision.

The Tigers, who head for Cambridge Saturday to take their first shot at the 1955 Big Three title against Harvard, will be manfully stronger next year. Six of the eight members of the freshman team are unlettered and the four victims of the Class of 1958 have yielded 118 points while being held to 18. The freshmen whipped the Lehigh first-year entry, 20 to 8.

British Squash Players Here.
Seven British women were among the two score entrants in the New Jersey State Women's Squash Championships, which began Monday at the Pretty Brook Club. Mrs.
Bayard Stockton 3d, who was formerly one of the nation's top women players, is in charge of arrangements.

The British visitors are in this country to compete for the Walter Noel Cup, a trophy that they have won six times to the Americans' four.
Play will be held at the Merion Cricket Club, Haverford, Pa. at the end of February, following the women's national singles championships.

The British team is headed by Janet Morgan, a physical education teacher from Surrey County, who won the American singles and doubles titles in 1949 and has been British champion for the past six years.

High scoring laurels in the game, however, went to BMI's Dick Pike, who registered 30 points.

PHS played a mid-week contest against Ewing and on Friday the Little Tigers are hosts to Hamilton. Next Wednesday, they are scheduled to take on Lawrenceville here.

Platings for the 1955 basketball tournament of the New Jersey State Interscholastic Athletic Association have been announced by Walter E. Short, executive secretary. Princeton High has been paired against Somerville in the opening round of the Central Jersey Group Three championship division on March 2.

mentary Film" and will include five films in this vein.

Single performance tickets will not be sold, but if any subscriptions remain, they may be purchased at the door Monday evening. Subscriptions for the five programs are priced at $3.50 single or $5 double. The number of subscriptions is limited by the sight area for 16 mm. showings in the First Church auditorium.

The Girl Scout Council of the Princeton area is calling attention to the short subject "Mariners Aho!" which will be shown along with "Unchained" at the Garden this Thursday, Friday and Saturday. The short tells the story of a Mariner Girl Scout Troop aboard the 96-foot brigantine "Yankee."

A Girl Scout Mariner Troop was started here this fall, with members including Sandy Black, Erica Hamilton, Carol Ann Page, Jean Schrader, Sandy Wayner, Freya Wulf, Margaret - Lester, Lissy Sherr and Renny Travers. Seamanship is being taught by Mrs. Heath Licklider.

The Alumni Association of Miss Fine's School has planned a "Disney Festival" for the benefit of the school. Six Disney cartoons will be shown Friday, February 25, at 3:30, and the following day at 10:30 Disney's feature-length film "So Dear to My Heart" will be shown. Tickets are available through Mrs. Howard White (tel. 1968-W).

The 12th musical production put on by the Junior League of Trenton is scheduled for Saturday, February 26, in the War Memorial Building. The production is titled "Follies of 1955." The organization has, starting in 1922, staged musicals periodically to raise funds for the benefit of community agencies.

IT'S NEW TO US

Hot apple pies in a market? Does sound unusual, but we held out a hand, and sure enough the pie was warm. These nine-inch pies are made locally by Mrs. Hilja Treumut and brought hot to the Food Mart every Monday, Friday and Saturday mornings. At the moment, apple is to the fore. Cherry and mince in season. Price 89c. She also makes cookies that come 14 to a bag; oatmeal crispies, sugar cookies and peanut butter wafers.

Chicken pot pie comes in a flat round tin can and does not need to be refrigerated at all. You open the can, heat the pie in the oven (don't, for heaven's sake, heat it with the can unopened), watch it rise just like a home-made chicken pie, and then eat—both of you: serves two.

Summer Cross-Stitch . . . is the embroidery motif on a new set of skirts and blouses for warm weather now at the Knitting Shop on Tulane Street. Do your fancy work on two different styles of blouses and a full gay skirt. Begin now and you'll be done in no time.

Latest news in the sweater world is a full-fashioned orlon cardigan — Spinnerin's "Mazet." Knitting Shop has it in aqua, shell pink, yellow, a deep rose-coral and white. It's soft as a cashmere, resists mildew, perspiration and moths.

Knitting bags two feet long and almost half as wide consist of a frame of gold wire with felt covering in different colors. You buy the kit and make the bag yourself. One kit shows a black outline hand holding a bouquet of Violets. Another has a stork holding his traditional bundle in his beak. A third showers spring floral designs on pale blue.

New yarns include a non-far-nish yarn for stoles and things, in navy or black with gold, metallic red and light blue; white with silver and white with gold. Botany has a new heather tone in sports-weight, and Botany's Fingering yarn now comes in high shades of coral, light green and corn flower blue, besides the heather tones.

Hair Stylist Elected. Margaret Jeffries, owner of Artistic Hairdressers, 352 Nassau, has been elected to the Official Hair Fashion Committee of the National Hairdressers and Cosmetologists Association. She is one of two hairdressers in New Jersey, and one of 100 hair stylists in the whole country who belong to the exclusive group.

Miss Jeffries was admitted on the basis of written examinations in theory, ability to demonstrate with a model before a large audience, and originality of style. Members of the Hair Fashion Committee meet together to create seasonal hair-styles that influence coiffure trends in style centers throughout the world.

Winner of 16 major awards in international and national competition, Miss Jeffries is the only woman to win a first internationally and the only person to win first place twice—1950 and 1952. She is also winner of the first "Nestle" award in honor of the founder of permanent waving.

Incidentally, Elizabeth Arden's new Firmo-Lift kit is now available for retail sale—until now, it has been exclusively used in Arden salons. Designed for women over 25, the Firmo-Lift kit consists of special salon treatment oil, perfection cream and Firmo-Lift lotion. The package, with thick little booklet of instruction, costs $5.

MAKE YOUR HOME MORE LIVABLE WITH BURNHAM Cast-Iron BASERAY!

BASE-RAY*

*Floods FLOORS AND WALLS WITH CLEAN
EVEN Radiant HEAT*

INCONSPICUOUS

ONLY 7" HIGH — 2" THICK

EASY TO INSTALL

The cozy, clean, draft-free warmth from BASE-RAY Radiant Baseboards is the evenest floor-to-ceiling heat known. And solid, dent-proof cast-iron construction gives true radiant heat plus lifetime service.

*Pat. U. S. Pat. Off.

ADVANTAGES OVER STEEL OR COPPER BASEBOARD:

1. With BURNHAM Baseray's Cast Iron you get radiant heat—with copper or steel units you get warm air.
2. Cast-Iron BURNHAM Baseray's Radiant Heat means warm floors and walls—only 2° to 3° temperature difference between floor and ceiling. Because warm air rises, units primarily heating the air cannot provide such even temperatures.
3. BURNHAM Baseray is only 7" high, looks natural in your living room. Most copper and steel baseboard is 10" high and looks more artificial.
4. Cast-Iron BURNHAM Baseray is sturdy, no fins to break off in later years.
5. Cast-Iron BURNHAM Baseray is a bit more expensive than competitive steel or copper baseboards. But on the overall cost of your whole heating job this difference will be perhaps 2 to 3%.
6. Cast-Iron BURNHAM Baseray will give you steady heat. Because copper heats and cools rapidly, copper baseboard will give you cycles of "Too Hot" and "Too Cool".

WHAT IS RADIANT HEAT?

Ever been out on a warm spring day? The radiant warmth of the sun's rays gives your body that comfortable feeling. Let the sun get behind a cloud and you are suddenly chilly. The temperature of the air hasn't changed, but you've lost the radiant heat of the sun. That's what you give up when you install a warm air system instead of a radiant hot water heating system. And cast iron Baseray provides a maximum of radiant heat. The warm surfaces of the room give off rays which warm your body like the sun.

Hey, Fellas!
It's the custom to give your gal a box of Candy Cherries
On Washington's Birthday!
(Next Tuesday)

* always so fresh—so delicious

Russell Stover

for giving

Want to hear her say, "You're an Angel?" Just buy a box of Russell Stover's chocolate-covered, liquid-center cordial cherries. Half of them are coated with rich, dark chocolate, half with milk chocolate . . . all are extra delicious without being sticky sweet.

These cherries are exclusive with us in Princeton, just shipped direct from the Russell Stover candy kitchens in Lincoln, Nebraska. George Washington put cherries in the spotlight when he chopped down that tree . . . see how much attention you'll get from the woman in your life when you give her a box of these mouth-watering candies!
